Friday 22nd – Dear Diary

Finally! It feels like I've waited an eternity but now there's only one more day to go before my birthday! As you can imagine, I'm just a little bit excited! Most of my friends are coming to the party tomorrow; all except for Jess that is. I'm gutted my best friend can't attend but she did have a perfectly acceptable excuse. The bowling alley has promised an insane amount of ear splitting music and eye popping laser lights as we play. Mum has ordered burgers, fries and pizza to eat afterwards and obviously, there will be gallons of ice cream to eat too – just in case we weren't feeling nauseous enough already. So excited... yeah!!!

Saturday 23rd – Dear Diary

What a complete and utter disaster! At least this morning started off ok. The day began with Mum and Sam making me my favourite breakfast (bacon, hash browns and scrambled eggs), which was totally awesome and delicious. Then I got to open lots of incredible presents from my fabulous family. I'm completely in love with my new roller skates and I can't wait to try them out at the park tomorrow. However, it all went horribly downhill from that point onwards. I can't face writing down all of the truly gruesome details now, but all I will say is that the day ended with two cases of food poisoning, a broken wrist and at least 6 missing presents! I think I'm going to go to bed now. I'm sure things won't seem quite so bad tomorrow – hopefully!

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you regarding the disastrous birthday party you were responsible for organising on Saturday 23rd April.

Firstly, we were promised music and laser lights whilst we bowled. There was definitely music but it has been a while since my 11 year old daughter has enjoyed listening to 'I'm a little teapot'. As for the laser lights, my son could have done a better job with a torch.

Secondly, someone forgot to clean up some juice which had been spilt on the floor. One member of our party slipped over which resulted in a trip to hospital and six weeks with a wrist in plaster.

Thirdly, several children were violently sick after eating the inedible food you provided. The burgers were practically raw and the pizza can only be described as soggy. Then, as if things couldn't have got any worse, some of my daughters presents went missing. No one should be reduced to tears on their birthday.

I require an immediate response to this letter, outlining how you intend to compensate my daughter for having ruined, what should have been, a very special day.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Jones
