

Activity 1

Write the correct version of these sentences in your books.

- a) The car hadn't got no engine.
- b) I never got no sums right.
- c) She doesn't come home no more.
- d) I haven't never seen the Queen.
- e) She didn't go nowhere near him.

Activity 2

Add not or no to these sentences to make them mean the opposite.

- a) He is playing football tomorrow.
- b) We are working hard at school today.
- c) There are naughty boys and girls at Parson Street!
- d) This is a good picture.

Activity 3

Choose the correct word from the pair to complete each sentence.

- a) nothing/anything

John did not tell his father _____ about the accident.

John told his father _____ about the accident.

- b) no/any

There isn't _____ cake left.

There is _____ cake left.

- c) never/ever

Don't you _____ get tired of knitting?

Do you _____ get tired of knitting?

